Fall 2008 Adult Program

Deborah Price, Artistic Director

Program Schedule & Highlights

Chamber Music Connection's Adult Programs offer an opportunity for adult amateur musicians to study and play chamber music together. Each ensemble is arranged based on enrolled instrumentation and may include strings, winds, and/or keyboard. Music is provided and each ensemble meets for coaching and rehearsals with esteemed CMC associated faculty.

Fall 2008 Program
Friday, November 7,
Friday, November 14,
Thursday, November 20, &
Friday November 21 (concert)

The Fall Semester includes four evening sessions of coaching and guided rehearsal with associated faculty members from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m

Coordinator of Adult Programs

Dr. Leslie Maaser, a CMC Associate Faculty Member, is beginning her first year as CMC's Adult Program Coordinator. Also on the faculty of Denison University, Dr. Maaser, a flutist, performs in area chamber and large ensemble venues including as Principal Flutist of the Newark-Granville Symphony, Columbus Camerata Wind Quintet and the Ohio Capital Winds. In 2008, she was a featured soloist with the Newark-Granville Symphony and the Denison University Symphony Orchestra.

Location

All activities will be held on the campus of St. John's Episcopal Church, located at 700 High Street in downtown Worthington, Ohio (43085).
